BEGINNINGS

How can they be described? What are they made of? Where do they end? Could beginnings be described as little ideas that take hold, grow and develop and become the basis for our future? Or, are beginnings made when you practice and run and jump until it seems you can't go one step further—but finally—your cheerleading squad is the very best or maybe you're one of the county champs? And after you've made it that far—after you have reached that ultimate goal—then you see another shining star in the distance, and once again you make a beginning.

This book is also a beginning. It's the story of Hyndman High School and all of her people. The happiness and sadness, the success and failure, all of the everyday happenings at Hyndman High are contained here. And so, we dedicate the 1973 HORNET to Hyndman High School—a continuing story made up of many beginnings but never an ending!

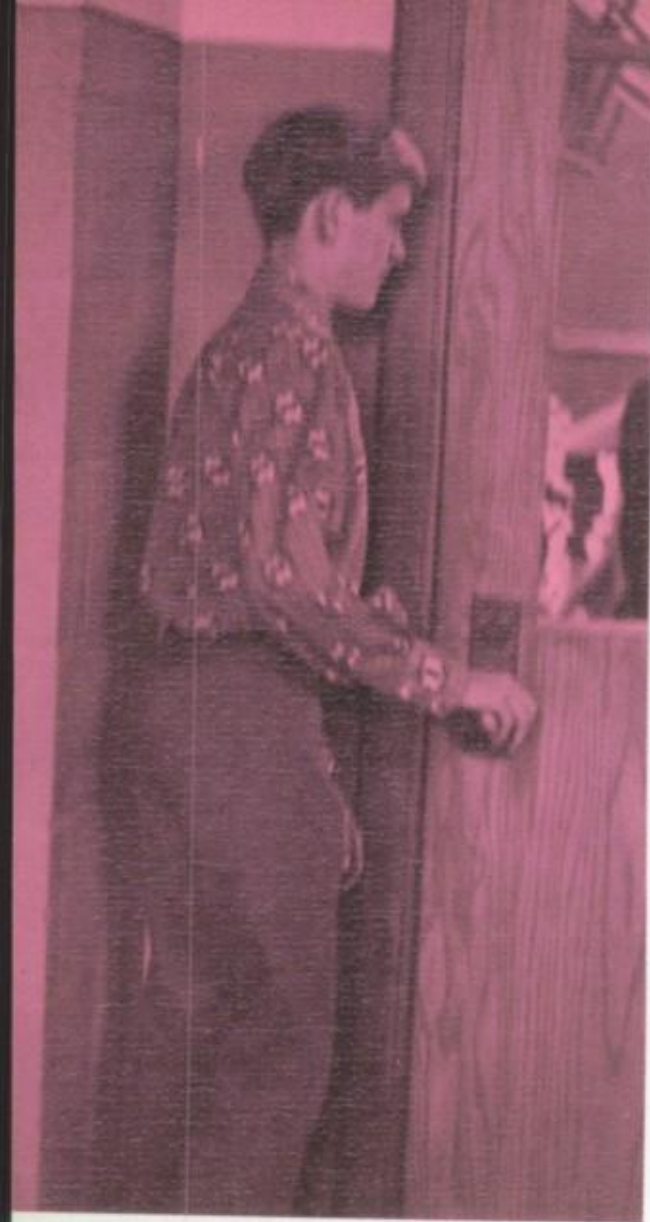

HORNET—'73

FRIENDSHIP

A friend is the sunshine of your life. Someone you can laugh with, talk with, and dream secret dreams with. A friend will stick by you, fight for your rights, and pat you on the back when you're down. A friend knows when you're sad and how to cheer you up; he understands your moods. A friend will share all the happiness of his life and all the secrets of his heart with you. Yes, a friend is all these things—and more—for a friend loves you in his own special way.

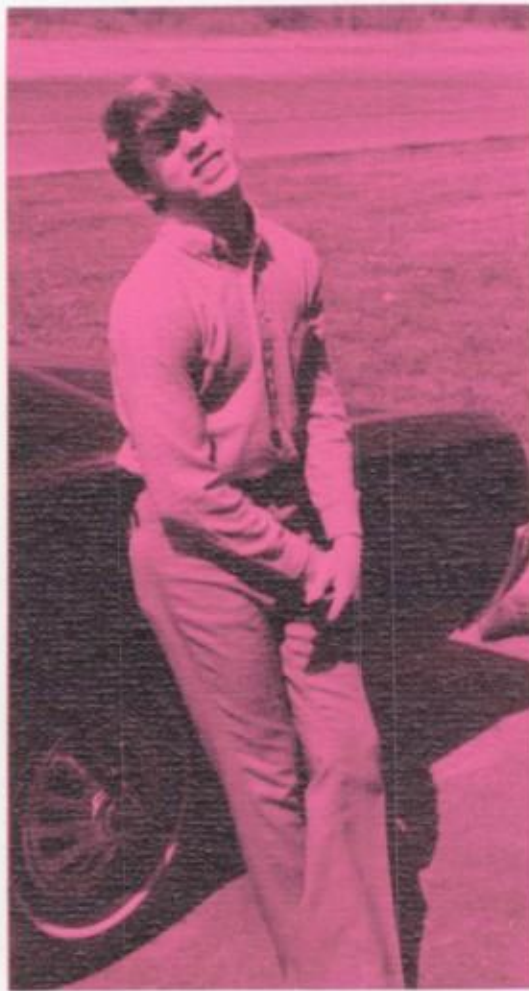

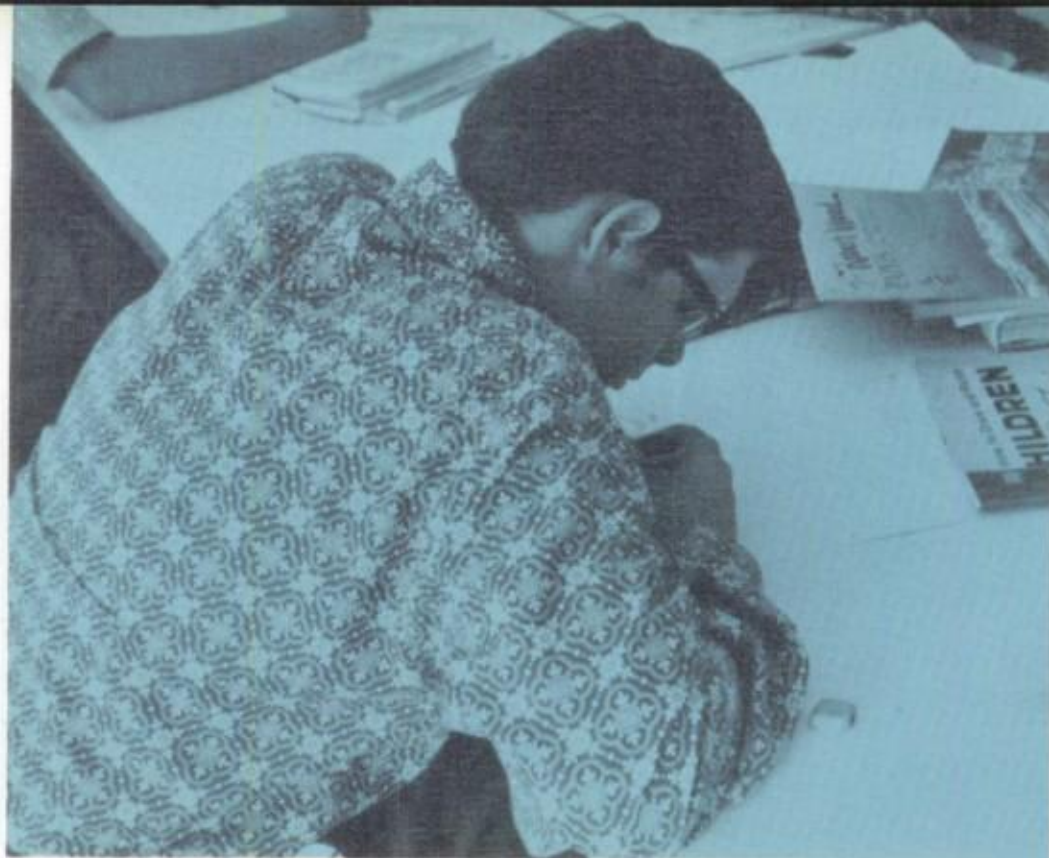

INDIVIDUALISM

We are proud to have a few people in our school who are willing to stand up for what they believe in. They have developed their own style of living and have the courage to face the words of opposition they are bound to encounter. Their unique personalities make school exciting for all of us.

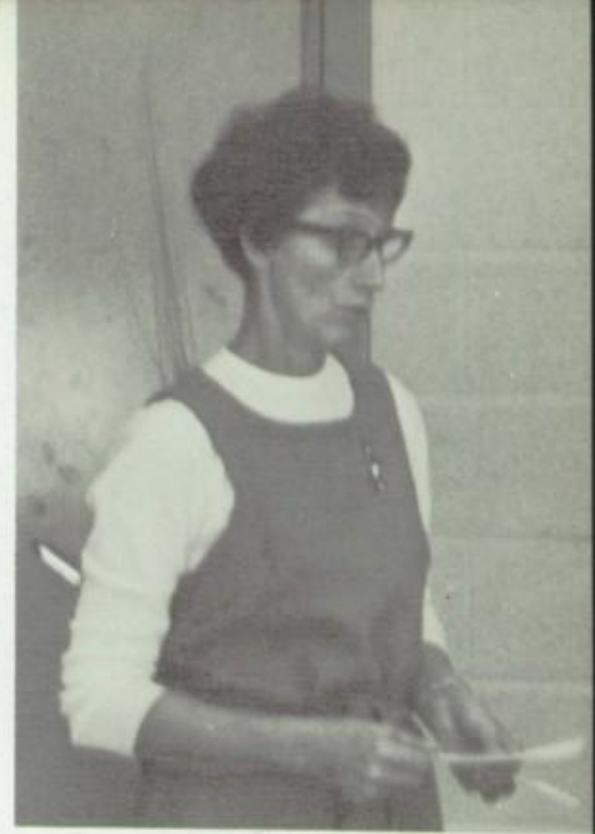

LOVE

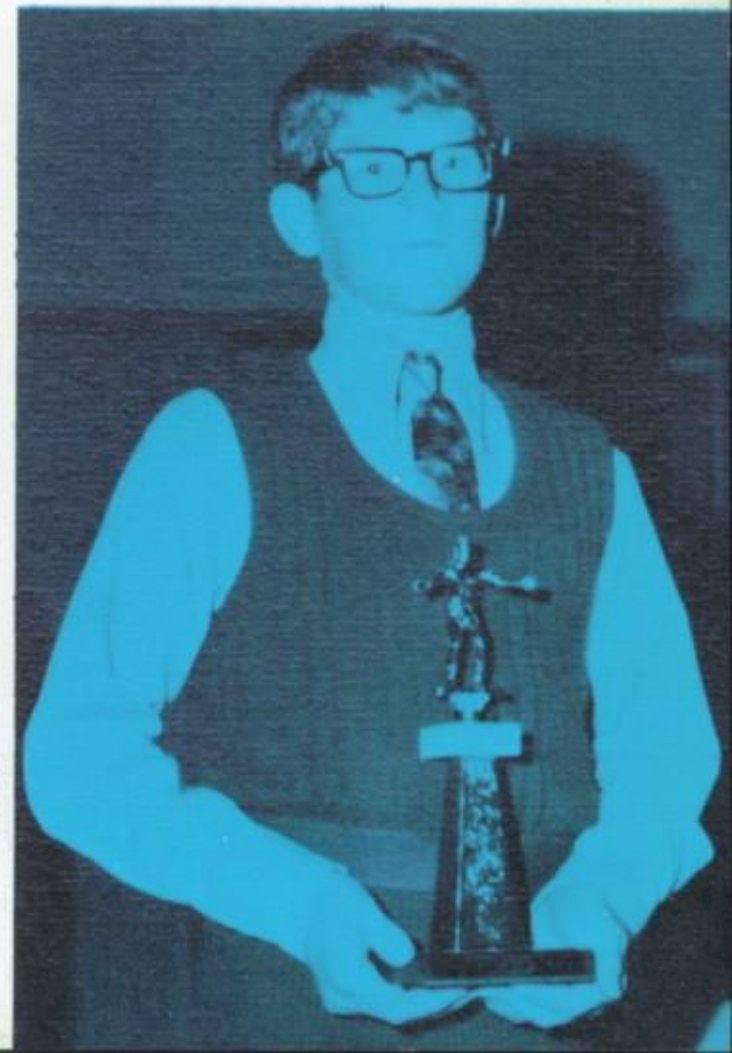

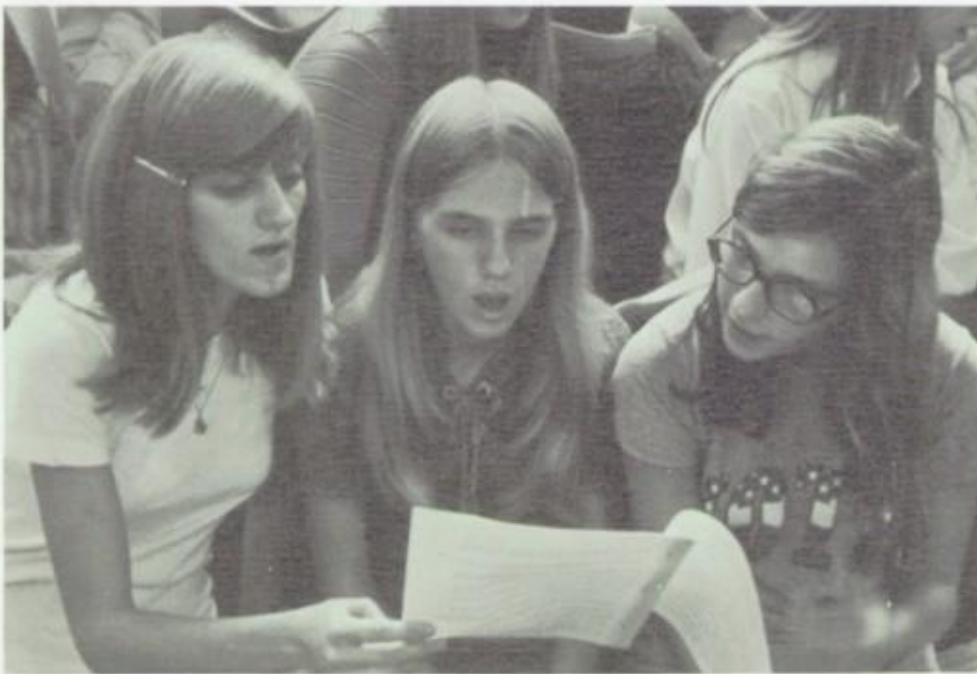

Love is more than just physical attraction. It has its own special meaning for each one of us. It can be a cuddly, soft kitten, a pizza pie, or a best friend. Love can be the beginning of a yearbook, a super drawing in art class, or a roomful of noisy band and chorus students. It might even be a secret project, a basketball team, or a job that you enjoy. But, whatever your own personal love is, let's hope you wake up each morning with plenty of it in your heart to share with everyone.

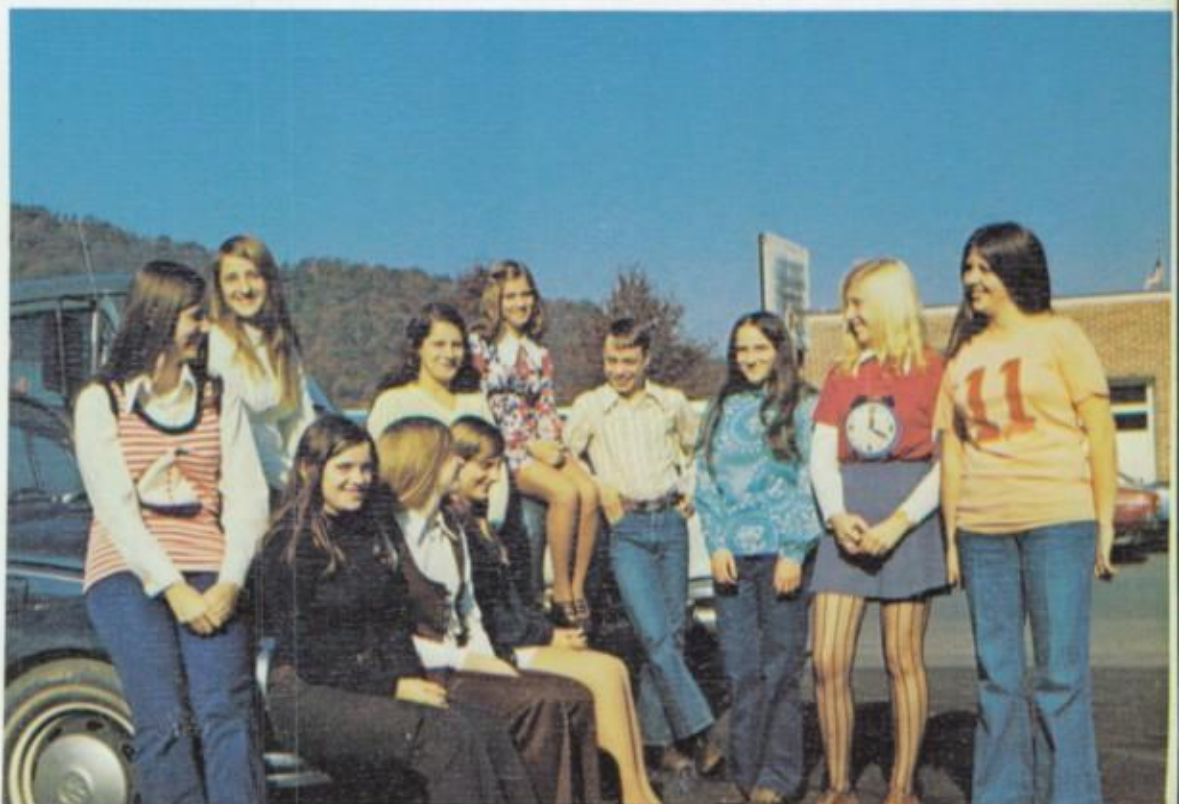

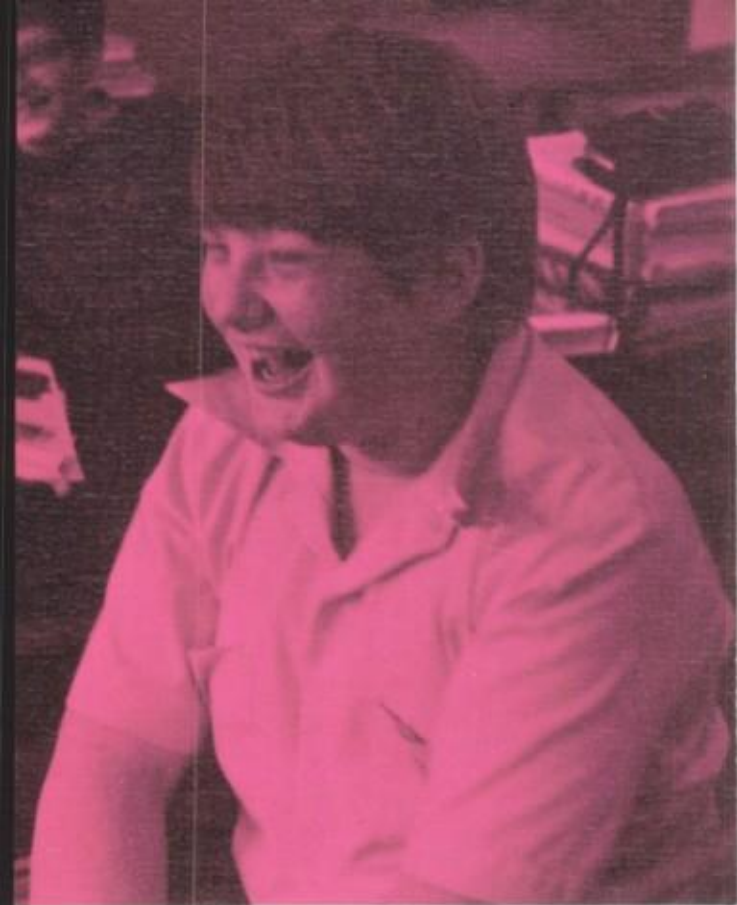

LOYALTY

Pride in your school, your work, yourself; these are all evidence of loyalty. But there are also deeper meanings, for to be loyal is to have a deep understanding of what makes these things work. Our Band, Drama Club, Chorus, and Art Association are great organizations, but would they be without the dedication of a loyal group of people? Of course not, and we are glad to have true blue students in our school.

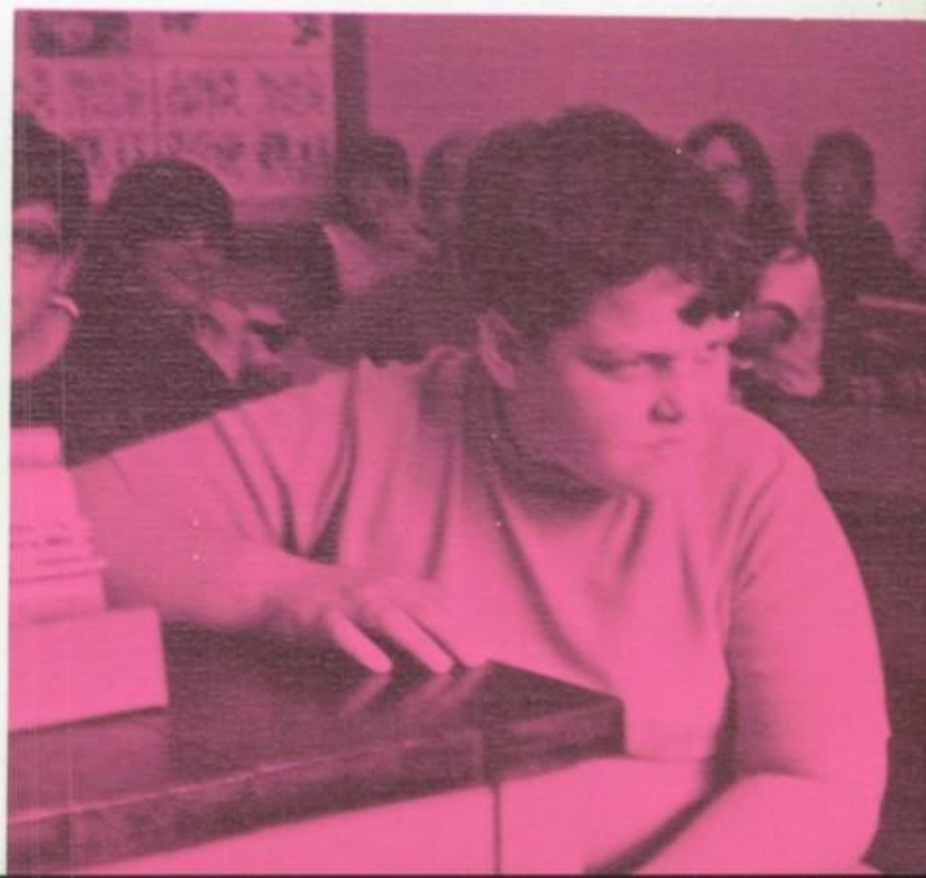

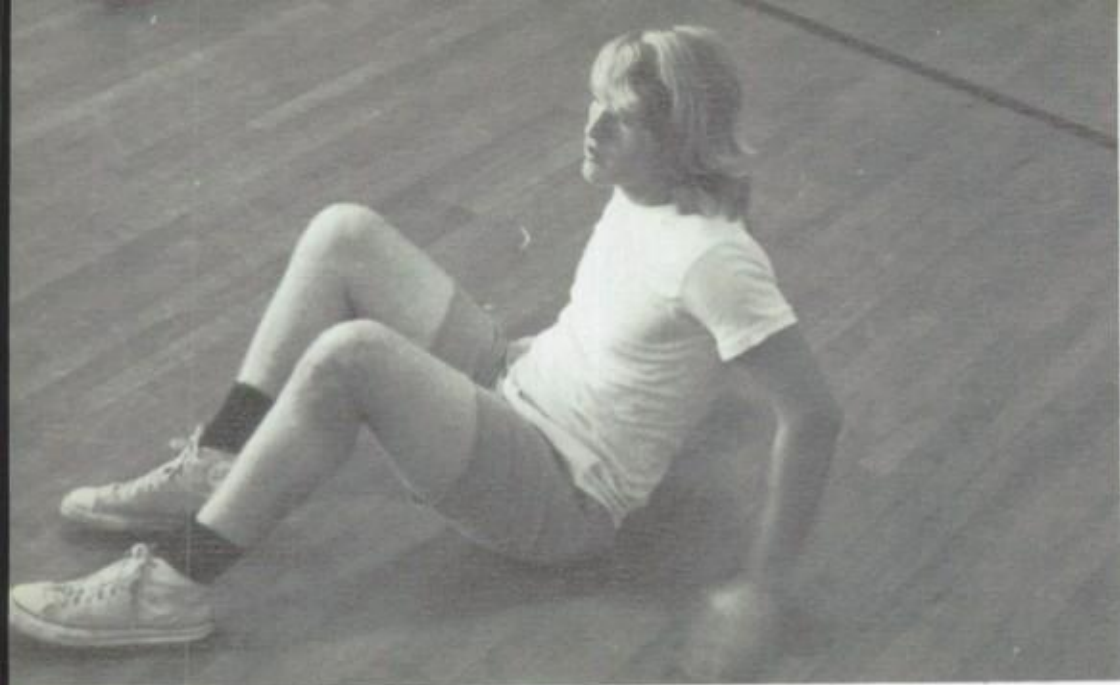

EMOTIONS

Emotions make us human. Without them we would miss all the joys and sadness of life. Everywhere around us there is evidence of feelings. People laugh at jokes, become angry at problems and cry at defeats. They smile at friends and frown at things they believe are wrong. Emotions are the excitement and color of life.

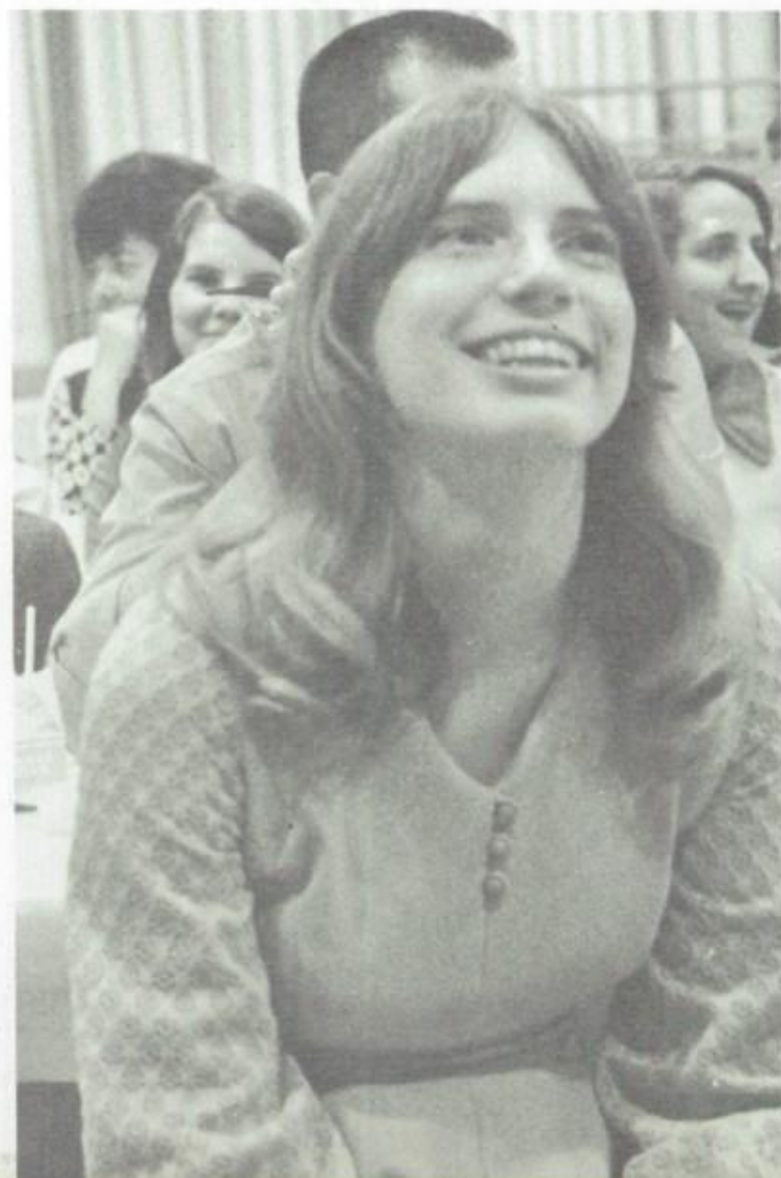

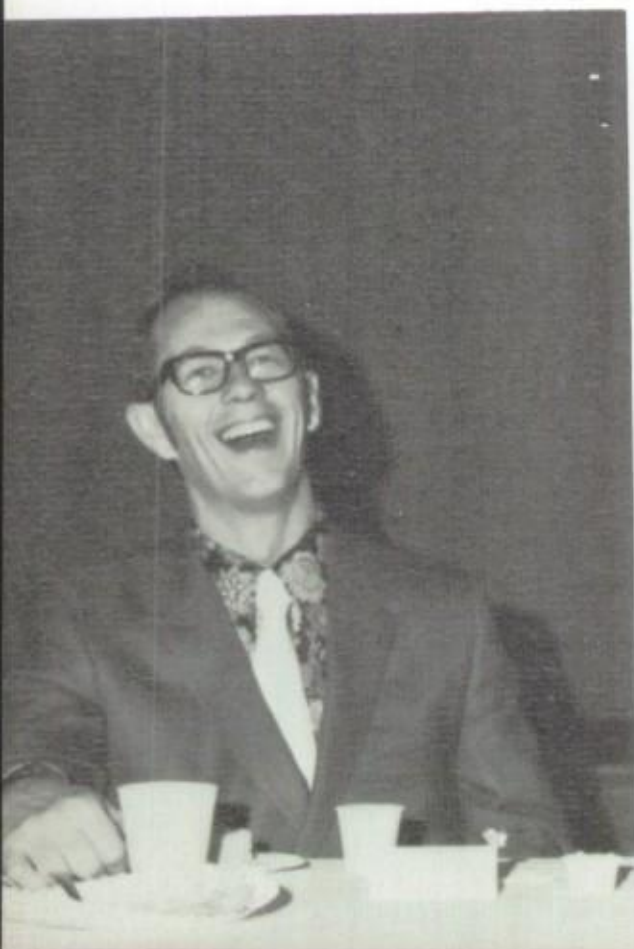

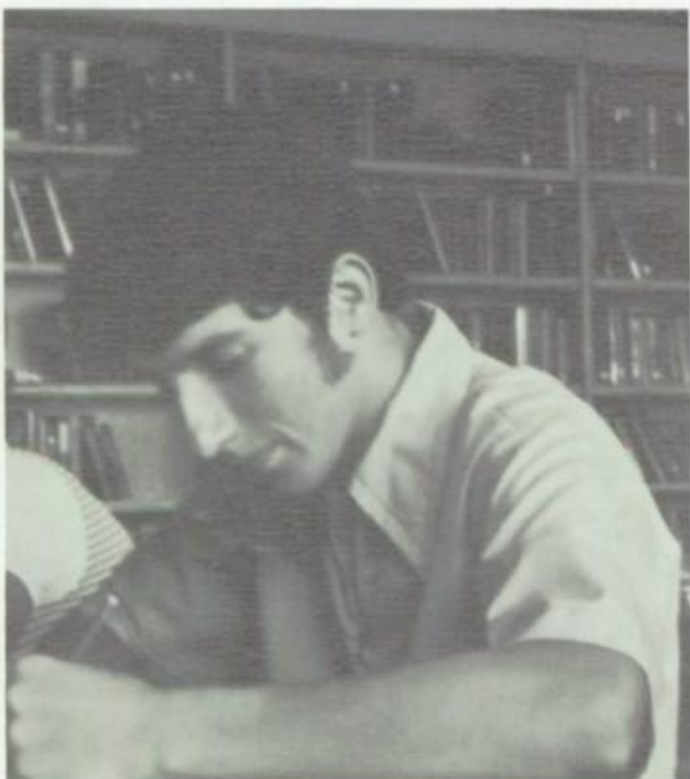

FUN AND GAMES

What is more fun than whipping an eraser across the room in English class and not getting caught, or telling a joke in Math class that makes everyone laugh—but the teacher? What can be better than setting a whole row of lockers or putting caterpillars in someone's purse? What is more fun than bringing a squirtgun on the last day of school or telling your substitute teacher that you've already done Lesson 22? If not for the sheer genius of youth, school would be a prison without bars.

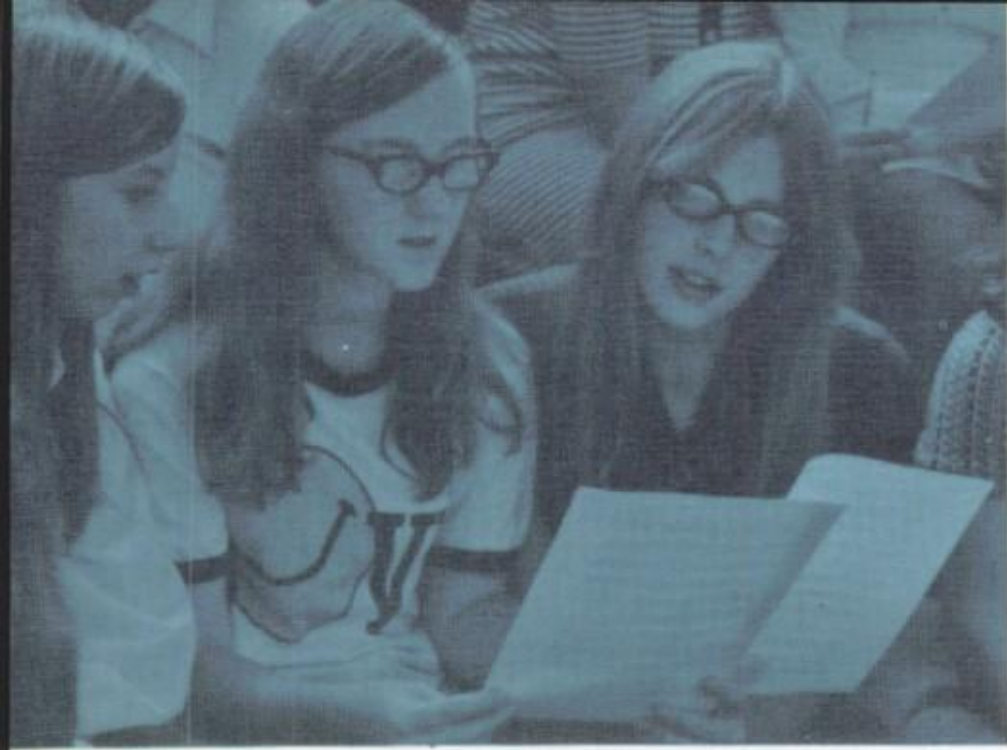

WORK

Enjoyment is found in work. Setting your mind to a task and seeing it come out perfectly is one of the greater rewards of life. It takes a lot of hard work to succeed and if you are willing to try and try until you win or if you are determined to see your ideas come out right then you have what it takes to reach your goal.

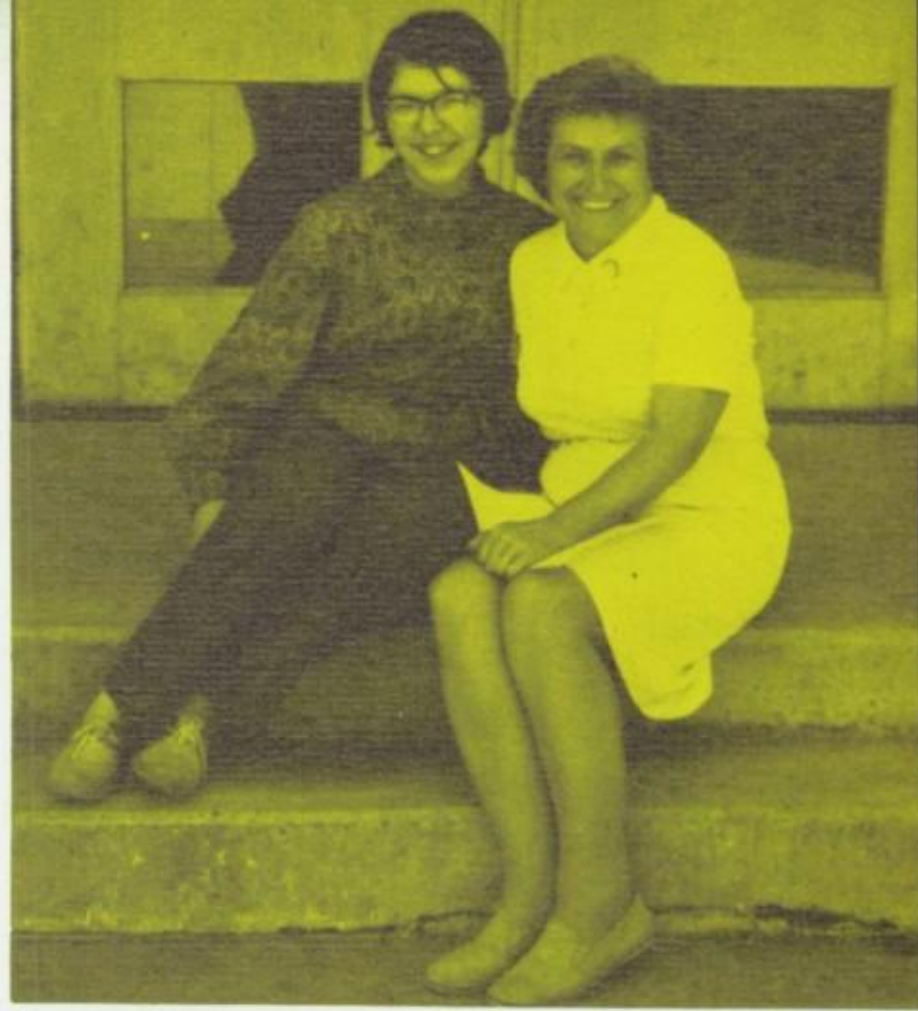

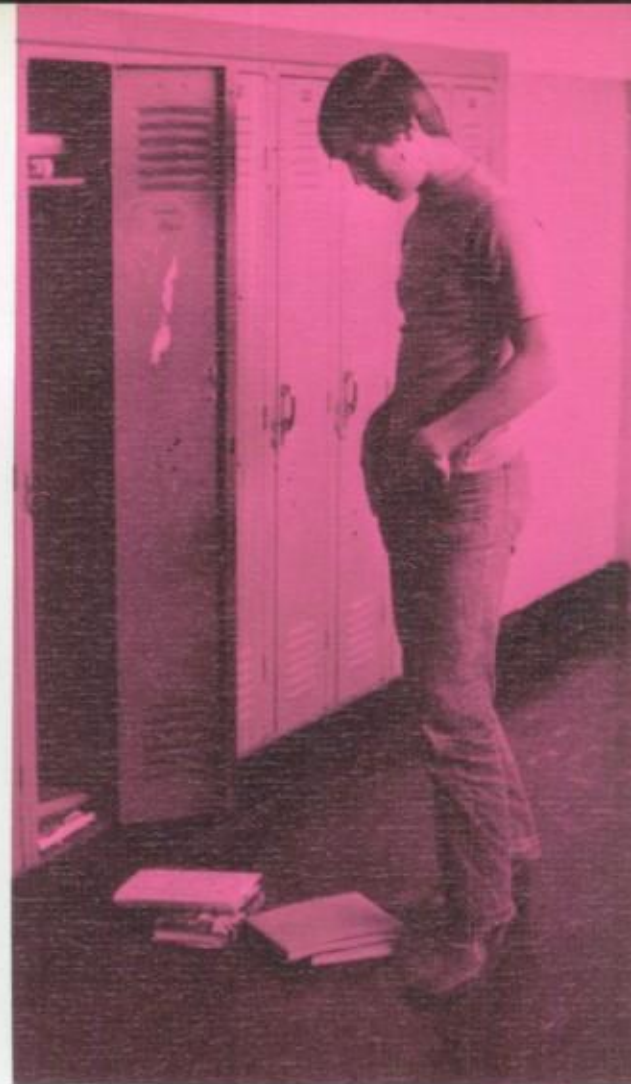

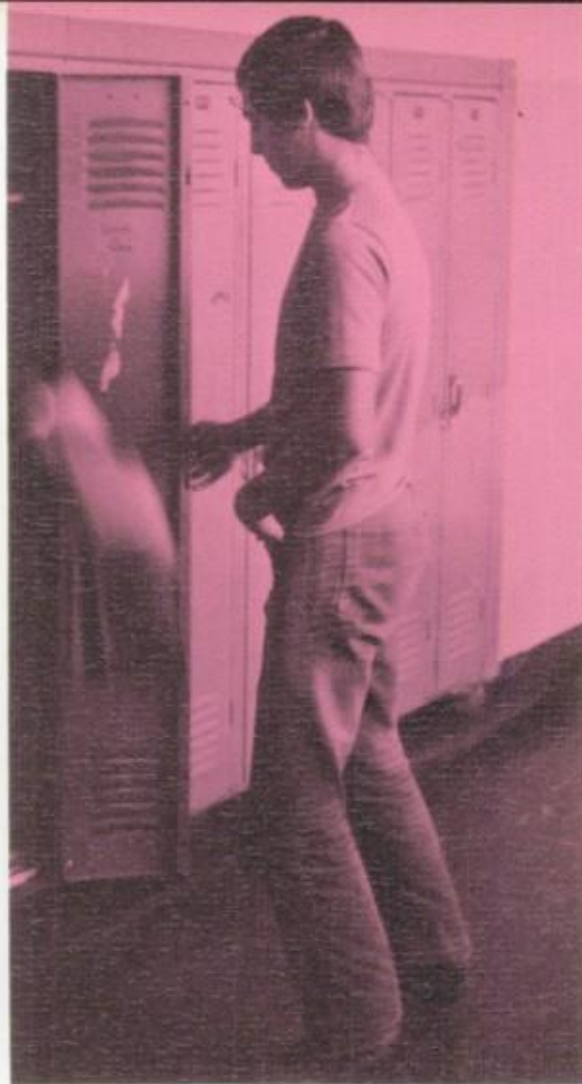

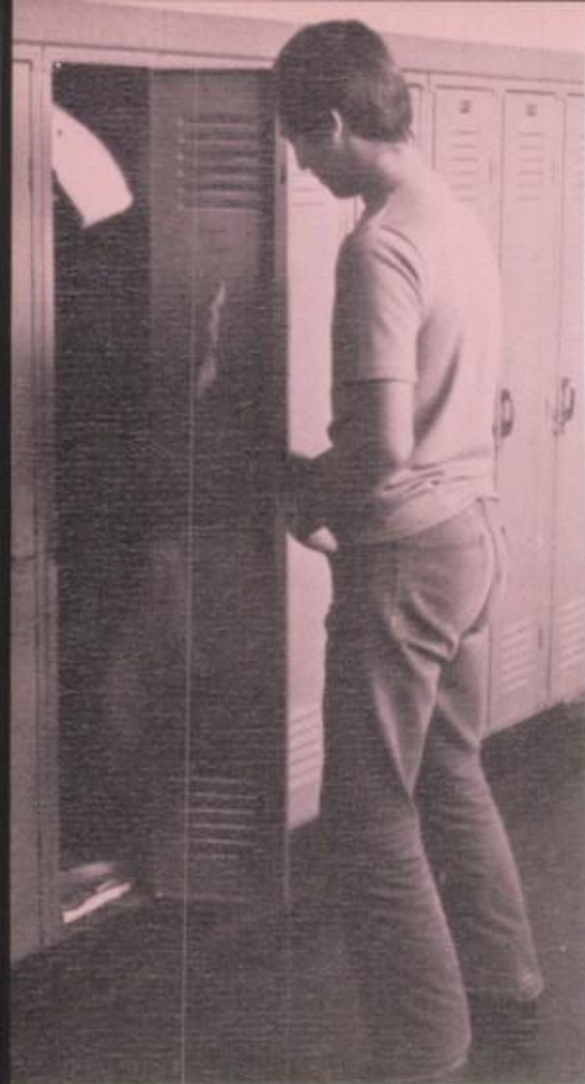

TOGETHERNESS

"Yes, I'll help you." Four magic words and what a wonderful meaning they have for each of us. Sharing our work, our secrets, and our fun makes life more pleasant and certainly more interesting for each of us. Doing a job is dull work until we have someone to help us out. A secret idea is twice as good if we can share it with someone else. Many projects would fail if not for the combined talents of many, so "let's get it together!"

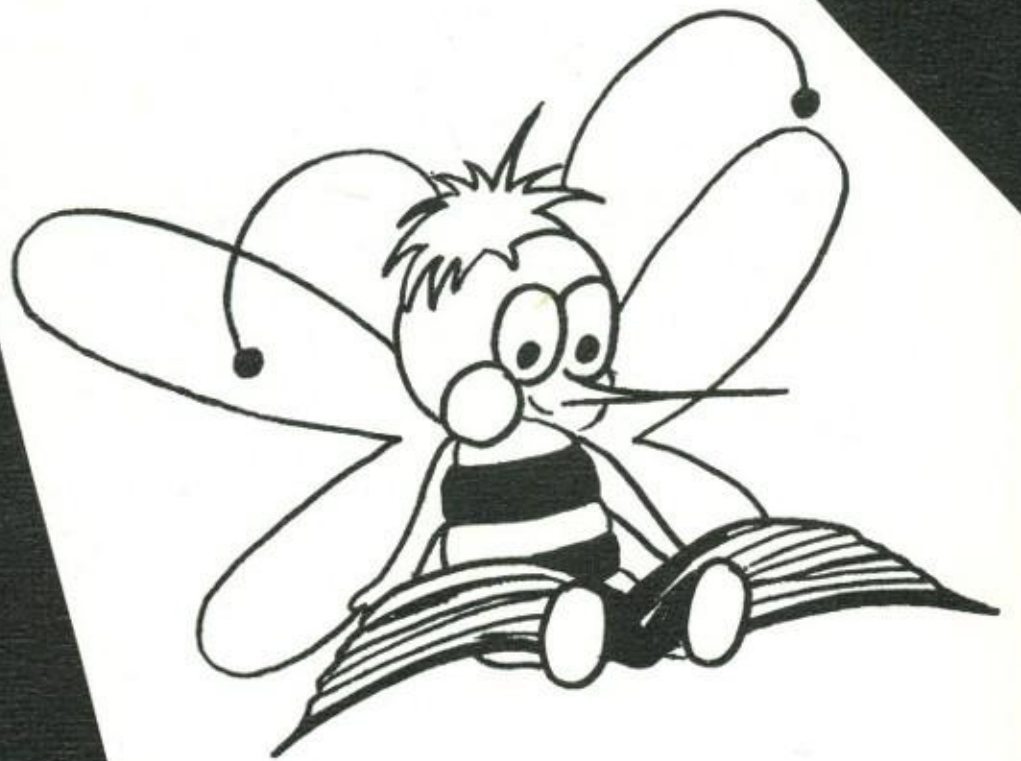

BLUNDERS

There are days when every thing goes wrong, days when we should have stayed in bed. Sometimes we have two left feet and our fingers are all thumbs. Some of these little mistakes are planned and others just happen naturally. These are the days when we have to laugh at ourselves and everyone laughs with us. That's when we call on our sense of humor to carry us through.

SENIORS

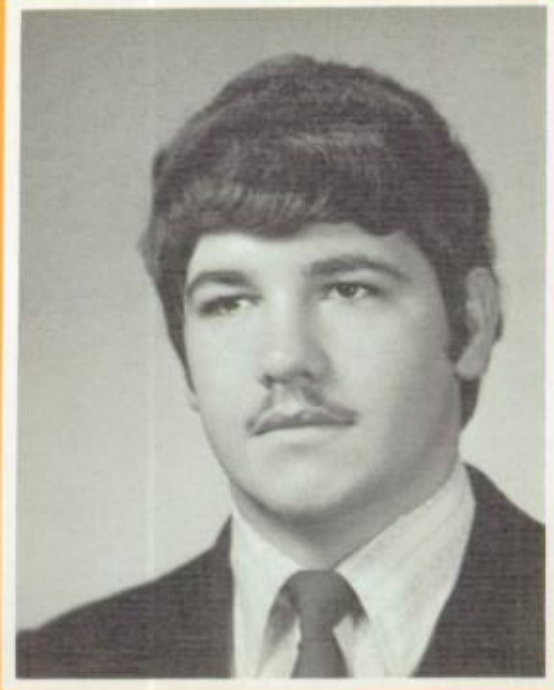

FREDDIE BISBING

It's better to sleep on what you intend doing than to stay awake over what you've done.

DELFOUR BURKETT

Anything one man can imagine, other men can make real.

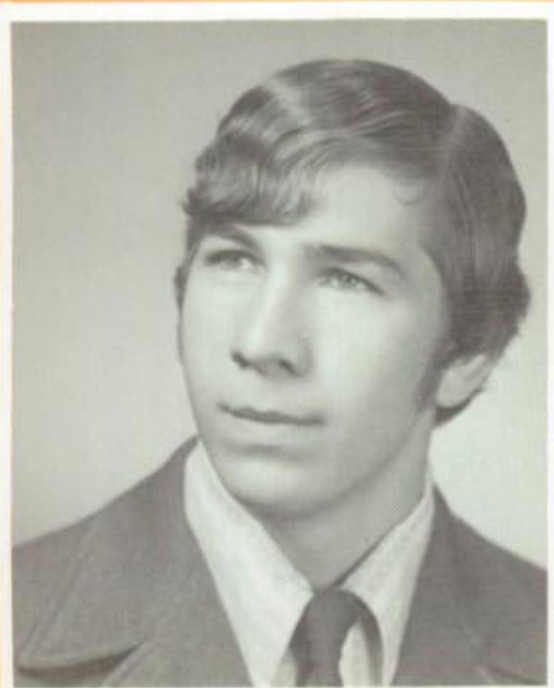

ROBERT BURKETT

Some people eat to live, others live to eat.

TO A FRIEND

I love you not only for what you are, but for what I am when I am with you.
I love you not only for what you have made of yourself, but for what you are making of me.
I love you for the part of me that you bring out.
I love you for putting your hand into my heaped-up heart and passing over all the foolish and frivolous and weak things that you can't help dimly seeing there, and for drawing out into the light all the beautiful radiant belongings that no one else had looked quite far enough to find.
I love you for ignoring the possibilities of the fool and weakling in me, and for laying firm hold on the possibilities of the good in me.

I love you for closing your ears to the discords in me, and for adding to the music in me by worshipful listening.
I love you because you are helping me to make of the timber of my life not a tavern, but a temple, and of the words of my every day not a reproach, but a song.
I love you because you have done more than any creed could have done to make me happy. You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign.
You have done it first by being yourself. After all, perhaps this is what being a friend means.

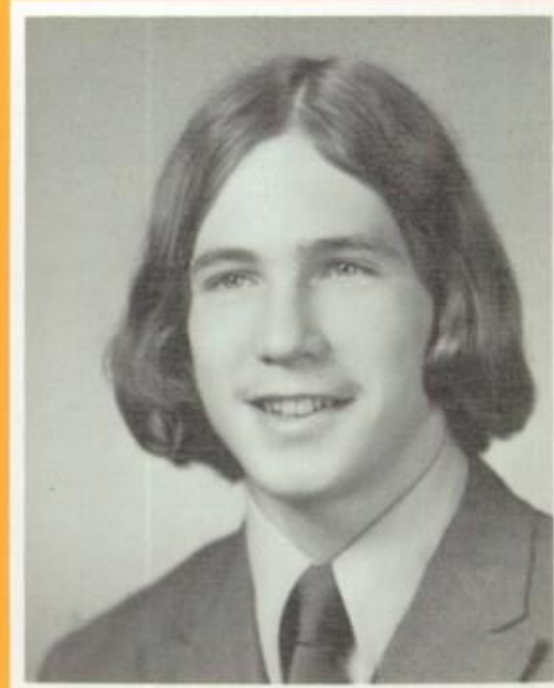

EUGENE BURKETT

Most teen-agers are aware of the value of the dollar. It buys about three gallons of gasoline.

SUSAN CLITES

Tact is the rare ability to keep silent while two friends are arguing, and you know both of them are wrong.

JACK COOK

You can't just go on being a good egg. You must either hatch or go bad.

CAROL DAWSON

Silence separates more than distance.

CYNTHIA DAWSON

The trouble with the future is that it usually arrives before we're ready for it.

ROXIE DERNER

Those people who have no trouble separating the men from the boys are called women.

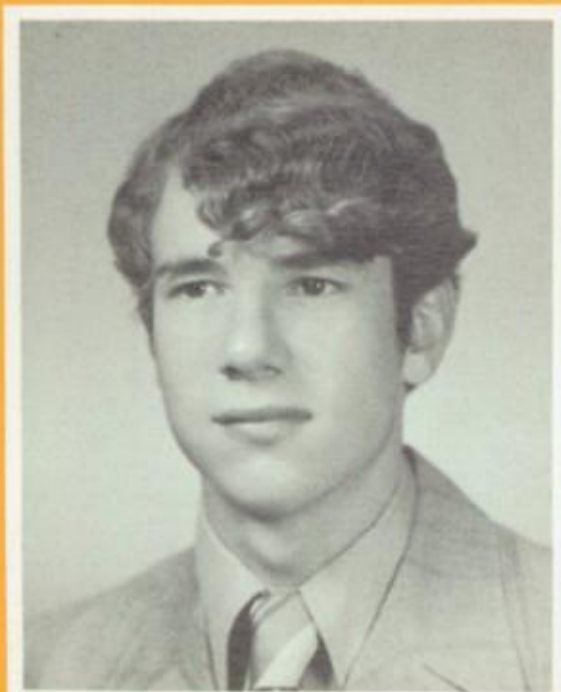

My senior year is a beginning because now the process of growing is over, and I now must be able to do things on my own. All decisions from this year on will be my own. The mistakes that I make, only I will have to suffer for. My senior year is the beginning of a new life because I will now be governed by myself, and make my own decisions. I owe this school alot, but it is now up to me to do it alone.

Randy

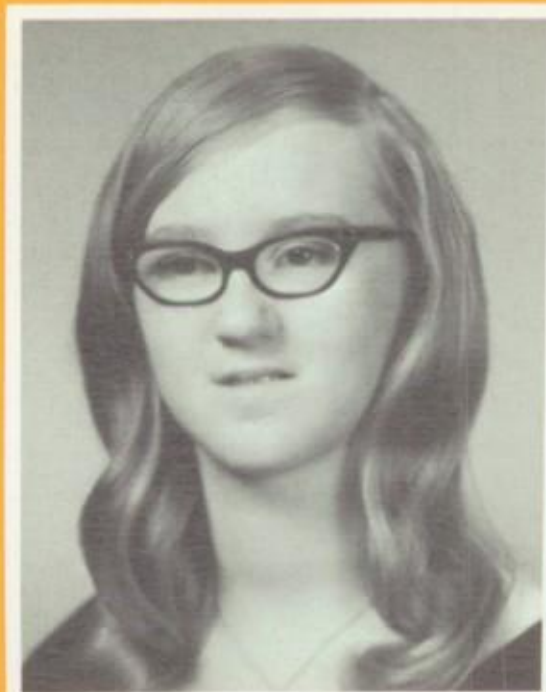

DEBORAH DIVELBISS

A women never admits she's lost an argument. She just think she's failed to make her position clear.

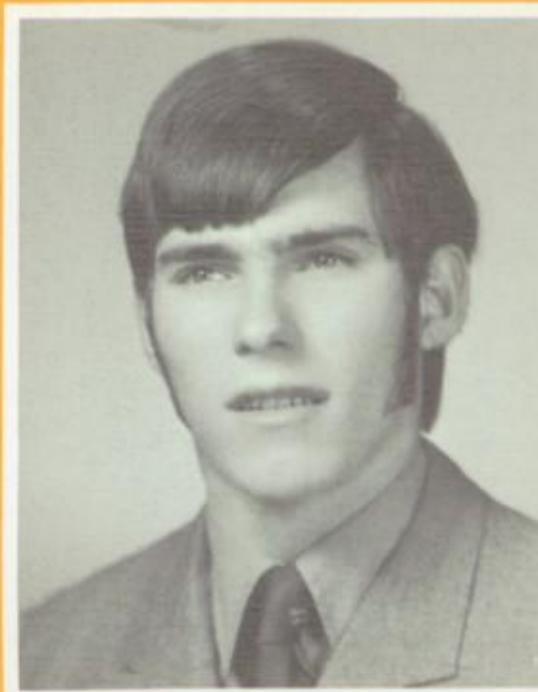

DAVID EMERICK

Kids have it tough. Where they used to walk to school and keep warm by running, now they stand and shiver waiting for the bus.

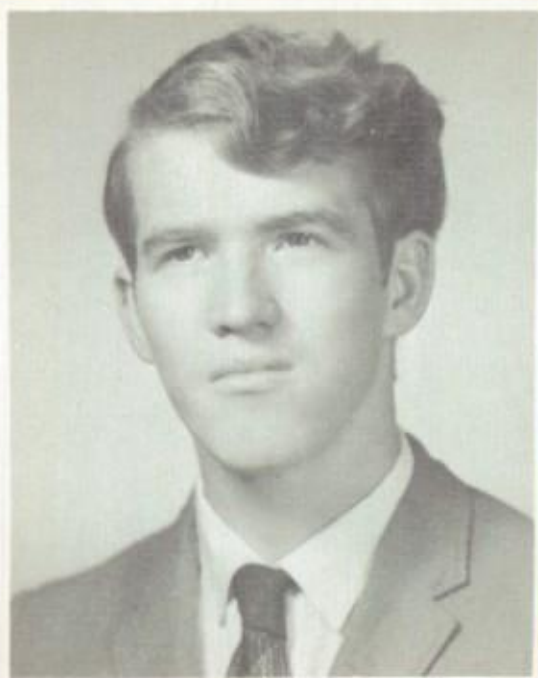

DEBRA EMERICK

I just hate to take the car out and baffle all that traffic.

GARY EMERICK

Nothing makes small print more legible than an accident.

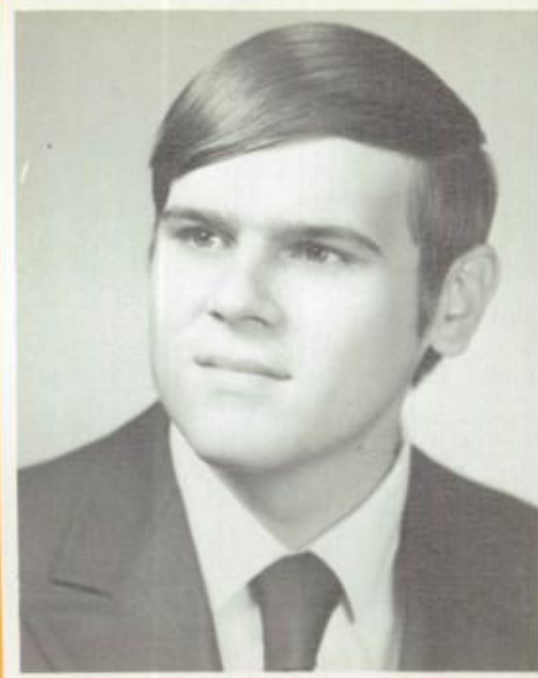

DAVID EVANS

He's the type that hits the nail squarely on the thumb.

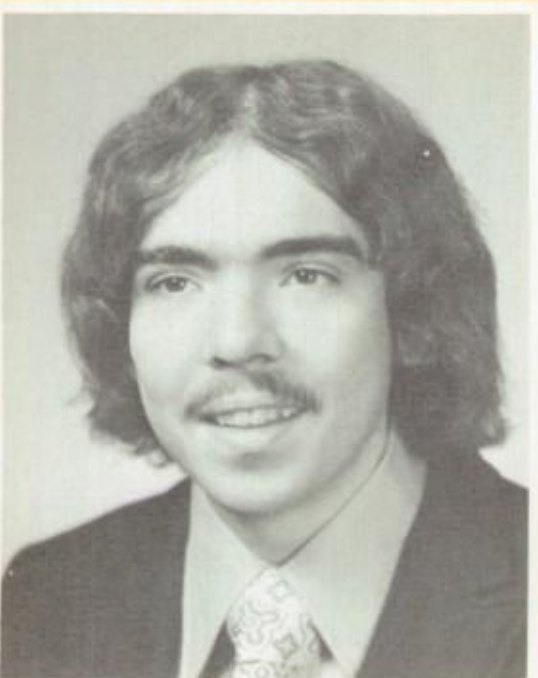

EMMALEE GASTER

I believe in the discipline of silence and could talk about it for hours.

STEVEN HARE

If I don't say anything I won't be called on to repeat it.

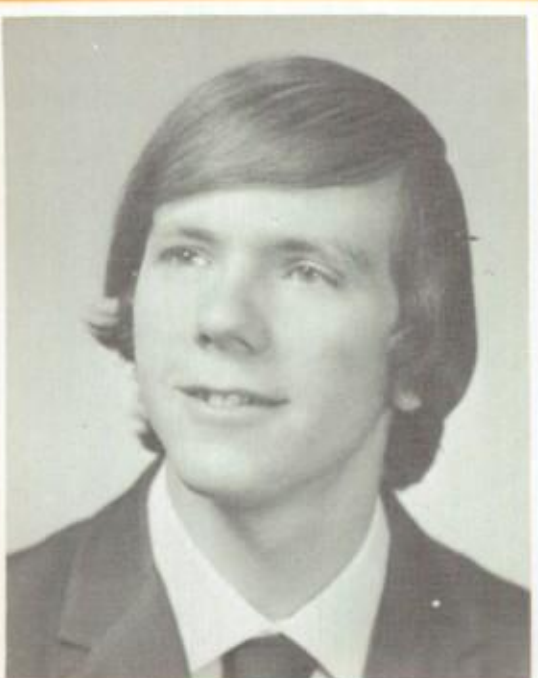

ROBERT HITE

Why worry about tomorrow, today isn't finished yet.

Senior Class Officers
Bobby Burkett—Vice Pres
Corinne Zimmerman—Treas
Dave Emerick—President
Susie Clites—Secretary

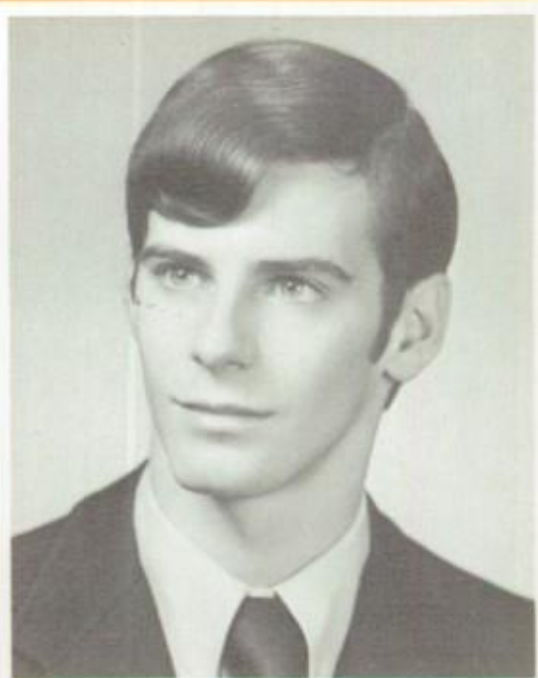

WILLIAM JENNINGS

I wouldn't call it speeding I was just trying to keep a safe distance ahead of the other cars.

JAMES JORDAN

I was born in a fortunate age; instead of "Juvenile Delinquent" we were known as pests.

MICHAEL KEEL

There are two ways to go through life: to believe everything or to doubt everything. Both ways save us from thinking.

SANDRA KENNEL

Being a woman is a difficult task since it consists primarily in dealing with men.

AMANDA KLINE

If roads are made of happiness. I travel them all.

JOHN KLINK

You can be sure that a person who starts by saying "maybe I'm wrong," is sure that he's right.

I have waited so long for this moment in my life, and I find that at times I am afraid of what the future holds for me. There are so many decisions to make and different roads to choose to follow. I wonder if mine will be the right road.

This is my year for growing up and maturing. I have to leave behind me all the set lockers, practical jokes, and childish pranks-things that I just don't want to let go.

I feel that I have grown into a mature, young adult, but what I find when I look at myself is a young girl, a senior, graduating from a school that she really doesn't want to leave.

All the little things that I never had a chance to do have to be crammed into a few short months. My senior year means growing up laughing with my friends, and then, on graduation night, leaving them to walk into a different and exciting world that I don't know anything about, but am willing to explore.

Cathy

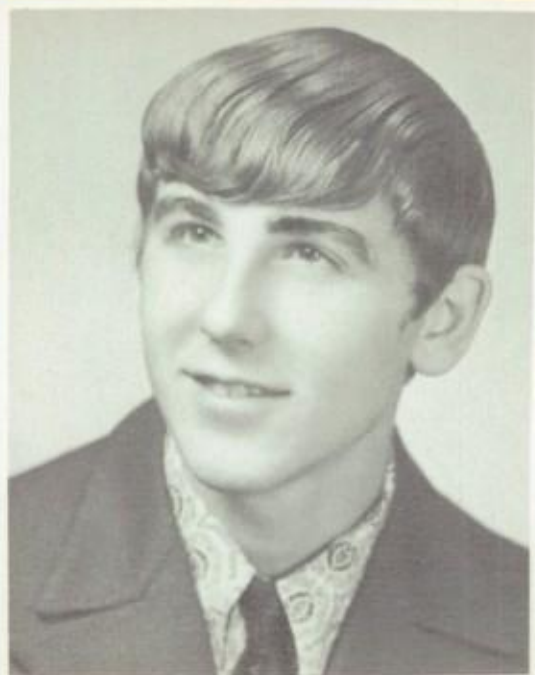

DIANN LEESE

Never mind the overcoat, button up that lip.

DARLENE LEWIS

Why must the phrase "it's none of my business" always be followed by the word "but."

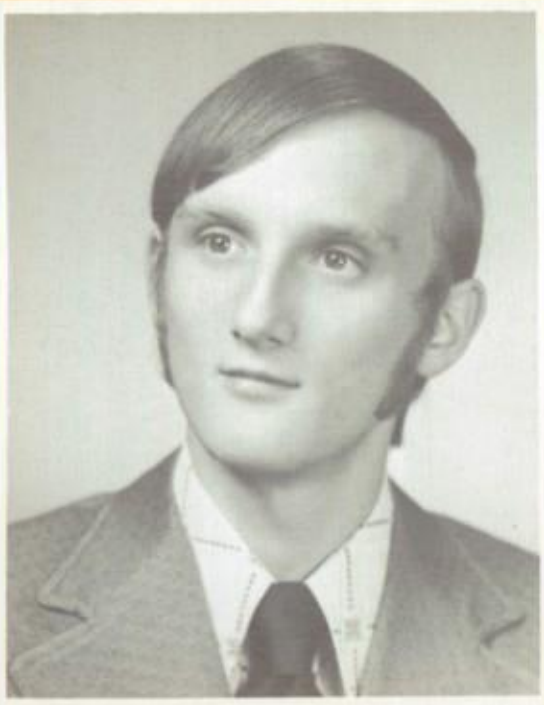

ALAN LOGSDON

Yesterday is experience. Tomorrow is hope. Today is getting from one to the other as best we can.

RICHARD LOGSDON

The trouble with school is the going to and the coming from.

WILLIAM LOTZ

The last seat on the basketball bus is always the warmest.

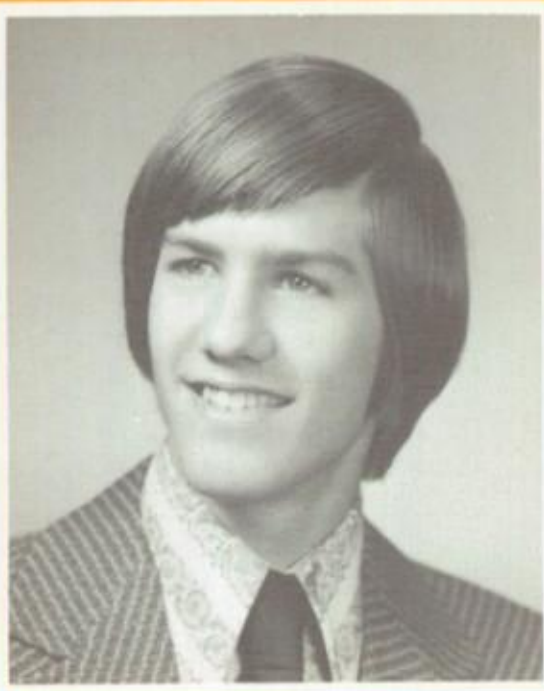

DEBRA MOORE

A girl may look heavenly and not be an angel.

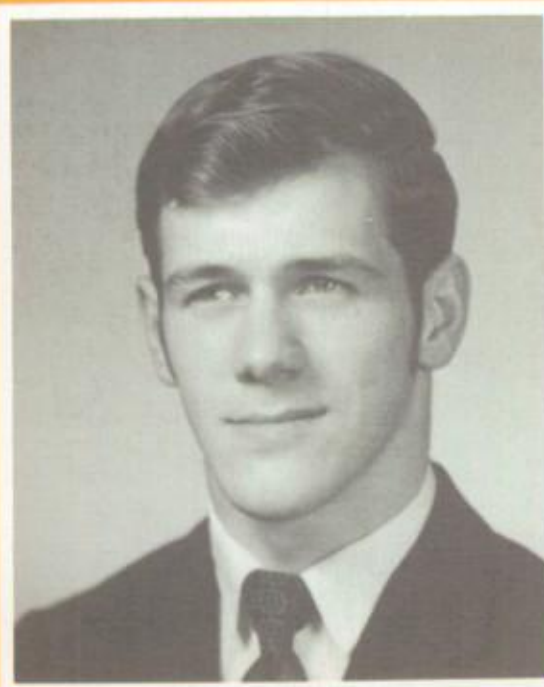

KAY OURS

Minds are like parachutes, they function only when opened.

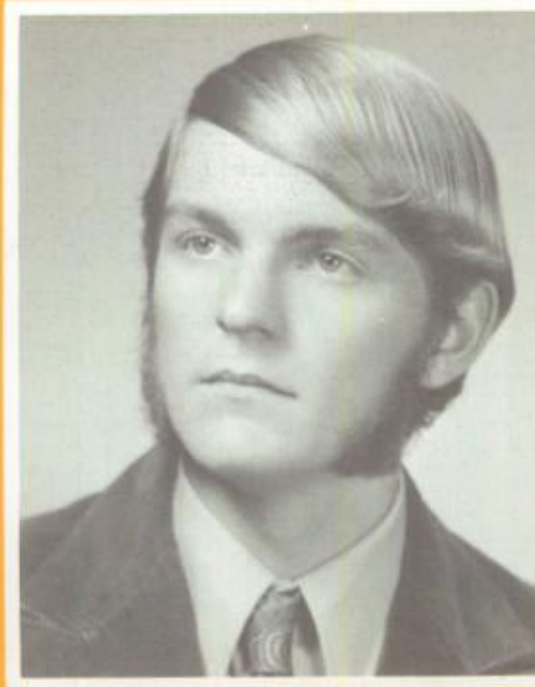

DAVID PORTER

The electronic computer saves man a lot of guess work, but so does a bikini.

RONALD REED

If you can sleep and pass, why stay awake?

RANDY RITCHEY

Nowadays the only time men turn the other cheek is when they get their sideburns trimmed.

CATHERINE ROBINSON

An ounce of "keep your mouth shut" beats a ton of explanation.

RUTH ANN SARVER

Learn to pause—or nothing worthwhile can catch up with you.

DAVE SHAFFER

What was called "sin" in grandmother's days is now referred to as "in."

JEFFREY SHAFFER

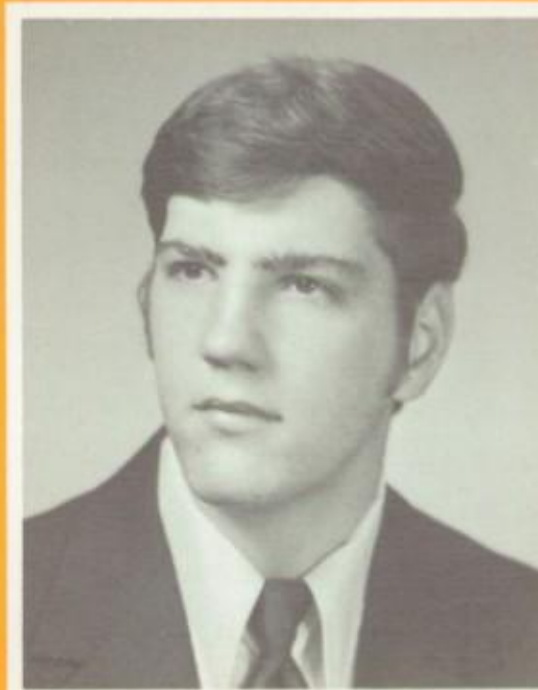

A driver is safe when the road is dry, but the road is safer when the driver is dry.

Class Song—"You've Got A Friend"

Class Motto—You're Only Young Once, but if You Work it Right, Once is Enough

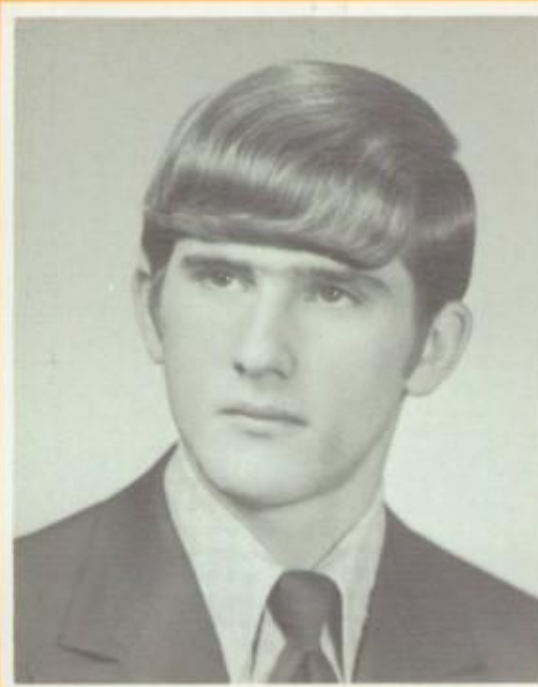

Class Colors—Purple and White

Class Flower—Carnation

MARK SHAFFER

The belief that a man is as old as he feels is responsible for a great many pulled muscles.

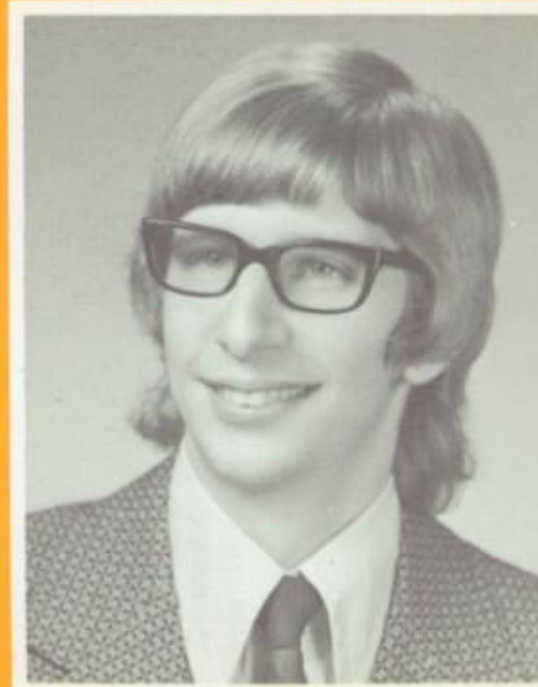

RODNEY SHAFFER

The divine right of the successful is as false a notion as the divine right of kings.

ROGER SHAFFER

People are judged by what they stand in line for.

RONALD SHAFFER

Nature does not demand perfection, it requires only that we grow.

VANIRA SHAFFER

Life is the art of drawing without an eraser.

YVETTE SHAFFER

There's one advantage to the music of the younger generation—nobody can whistle it.

JACK SHROYER

Conceit is God's gift to a little man.

SUSAN SHROYER

Her gossip is so interesting, you always wish she were talking about somebody you know.

MARY SMEAK

Having the right to do it doesn't mean it's right to do it.

ALAN SMITH

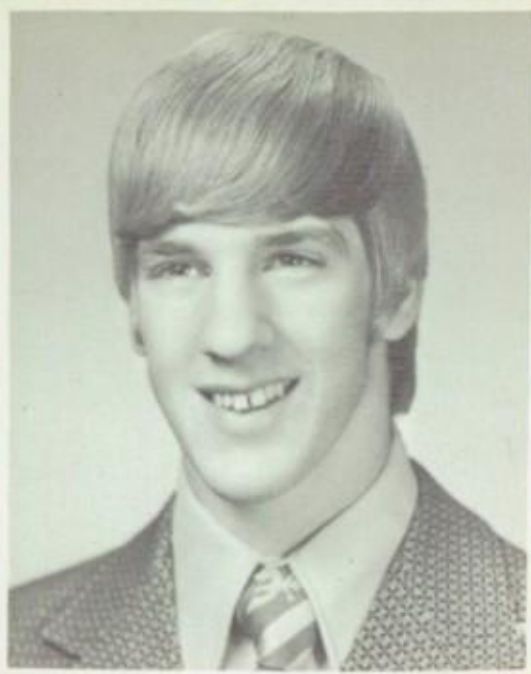

The best way to keep children home is to make the home atmosphere pleasant—and let the air out of the tires.

SUSAN SIDES

Opportunity knocks only once, but temptation leans on the door bell.

RICHARD STAHLMAN

The trouble with the world is that every day begins with that first half hour in the morning.

WAYNE STAIR

The big question today is, will a man be able to earn as much in five hours in a day as a woman can spend in eight hours a day?

VICKI THOMPSON

Before borrowing money from a friend, decide which you need more.

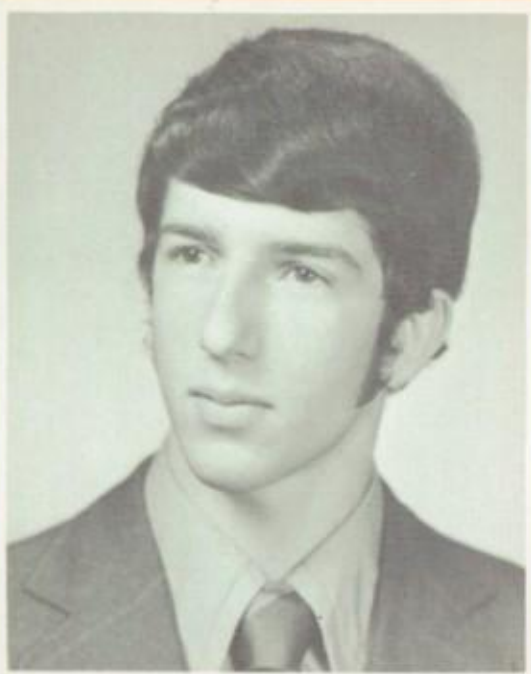

As I walk down the dark, desolate hall after school one night, a peculiar ringing comes to my ears. As I glance around, I realize this ringing is a signal which reminds me that I'm a senior now. The last of my twelve greatest years has finally arrived, and a special meaning is held within this year. As I pause to glance around, I have numerous thoughts. I begin to realize this year means more to me than all the other eleven years combined. My adulthood has its real beginnings this year; my education has reached a higher level. My path for the future will be built this year, and most of all, my senior year will hold great memories incapable of being surpassed. These memories would not exist without my friends, whom I have learned to love, and now must tell good-bye. My senior year means very much to me, and as I continue down the dark, desolate hall, I thank God for the opportunity of being a senior at Hyndman High School.

Susan

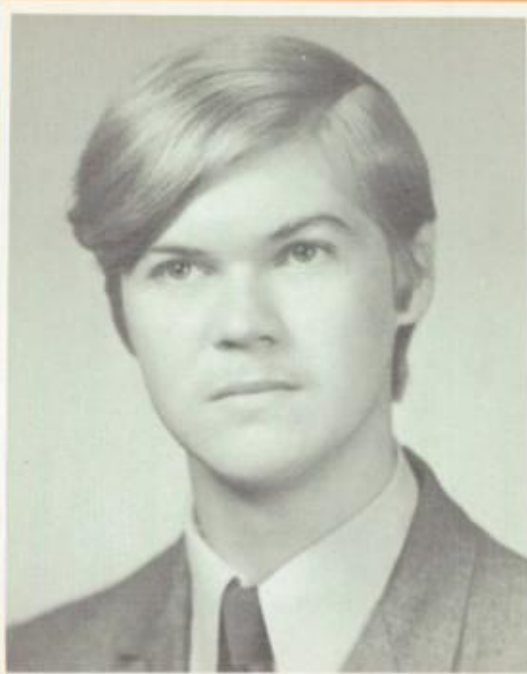

DEBORA TWIGG

Some body has been said to have the fastest gums in the west.

JEFFERY WARD

Everything is funny as long as it is happening to somebody else.

RANDY WILLISON

If you listen to too much advice, you wind up making other people's mistakes.

CORINNE ZIMMERMAN

A woman never forgets her sex. She'd rather talk to a man than an angel anyway.

MISERY IS

When Mrs. VanMeter has you give the speech that you didn't think was due for two days.

It comes time for your big line in a play and you remember that you didn't learn Act III.

The library book that you lost three weeks ago is collected.

Mr. Kipp extending early dismissal.

Getting to school and finding out that you have two different pairs of socks on.

Knowing of the problems ahead after graduation.

Having to go to the bathroom in Spanish class, and before you can go, you have to ask in Spanish—and you don't know how.

Typing with your carbon paper in backwards.

When Mrs. VanMeter has you give a book report on the book you forgot to read.

Mr. Kipp sees you down town the morning on the day you were home sick.

You look up from your work in the shop and realize that you've just missed half of English class.

Mr. Baker catches you sneaking through the school instead of running around it.

When it's your turn to read and you've lost your place.

Getting up on Monday morning.

Losing a basketball game by one point.

Sitting through POD and Economics

When it snows and school isn't called off.

Going home and finding the Munsters have been canceled for a special.

Skipping school to miss a test and then finding out that you're having it on the day you return.

Typing a paragraph and finding out that you have your fingers on the wrong keys.

When everyone in Phys-ed class is better than you are.

Eating a brownie with an Ex-Lax in it.

Getting drafted when you're only 16.

Watching a ten-minute movie when you were hoping it would take all period.

Coming home from school and seeing that your zipper was down.

When you thought everyone was going to skip class and you find out that you're the only one.

This year the Drama Club took a major step for progress. With fear deep in their hearts, the play cast of "Pillow Talk" boarded a bus early one morning and headed for Bedford High School where they presented the play. Expecting the opposite, the cast was overwhelmed when the audience responded with gales of laughter and standing ovations. Soon the fear changed to joy and everyone knew they had succeeded.

Another highlight was the second annual Christmas Dance. The guests walked into a fantasy land of candy canes and holly sprigs where they were soon captivated by our "far out" band. After a rousing rendition of "Jingle Bells", and a surprise performance by one of our students they were filled with the holiday spirit.

National Honor Society Pledge

I pledge myself to uphold
The high purpose of the National Honor Society
To which I have been elected;
I will be true to the principles for which it stands;
I will be loyal to my school;
And will maintain and encourage
High standards of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

Boy was I ever scared!

Like I was saying . . .

Now for a moment of sombre reflection.

Guide right!

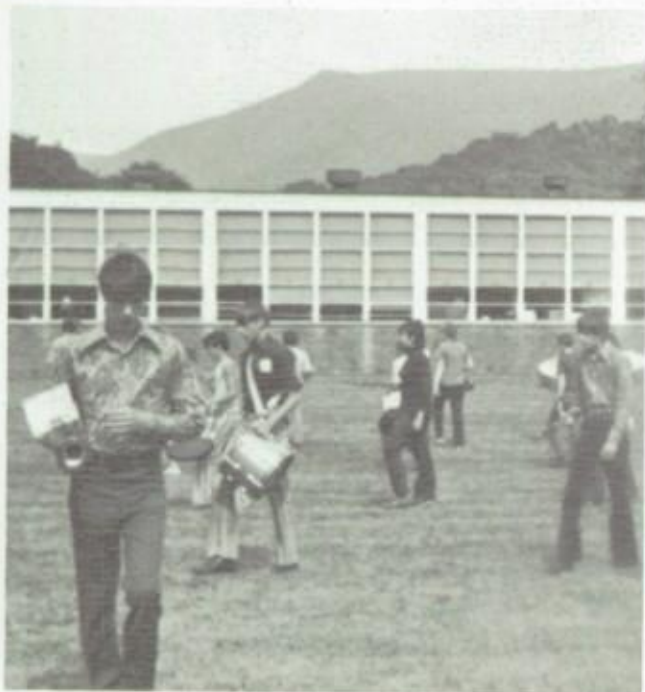

I told you these dancing lessons would improve your coordination.

Thank you—Thank you—Thank you.

Music fills an empty spot in the hearts of everyone and our music department has contributed a great deal to Hyndman High. Under the leadership of Mr. Michael, our band has had the experience of knowing what it is to achieve success, and enjoying it at the same time. Where he leads we will follow because his devotion shines through. For the first time our band dressed up in costumes for the Bedford Halloween Parade in order to capture the true spirit of Halloween. We also attended local parades for Christmas and Halloween and for a grand finale won 3rd prize in the Veteran's Day Parade.

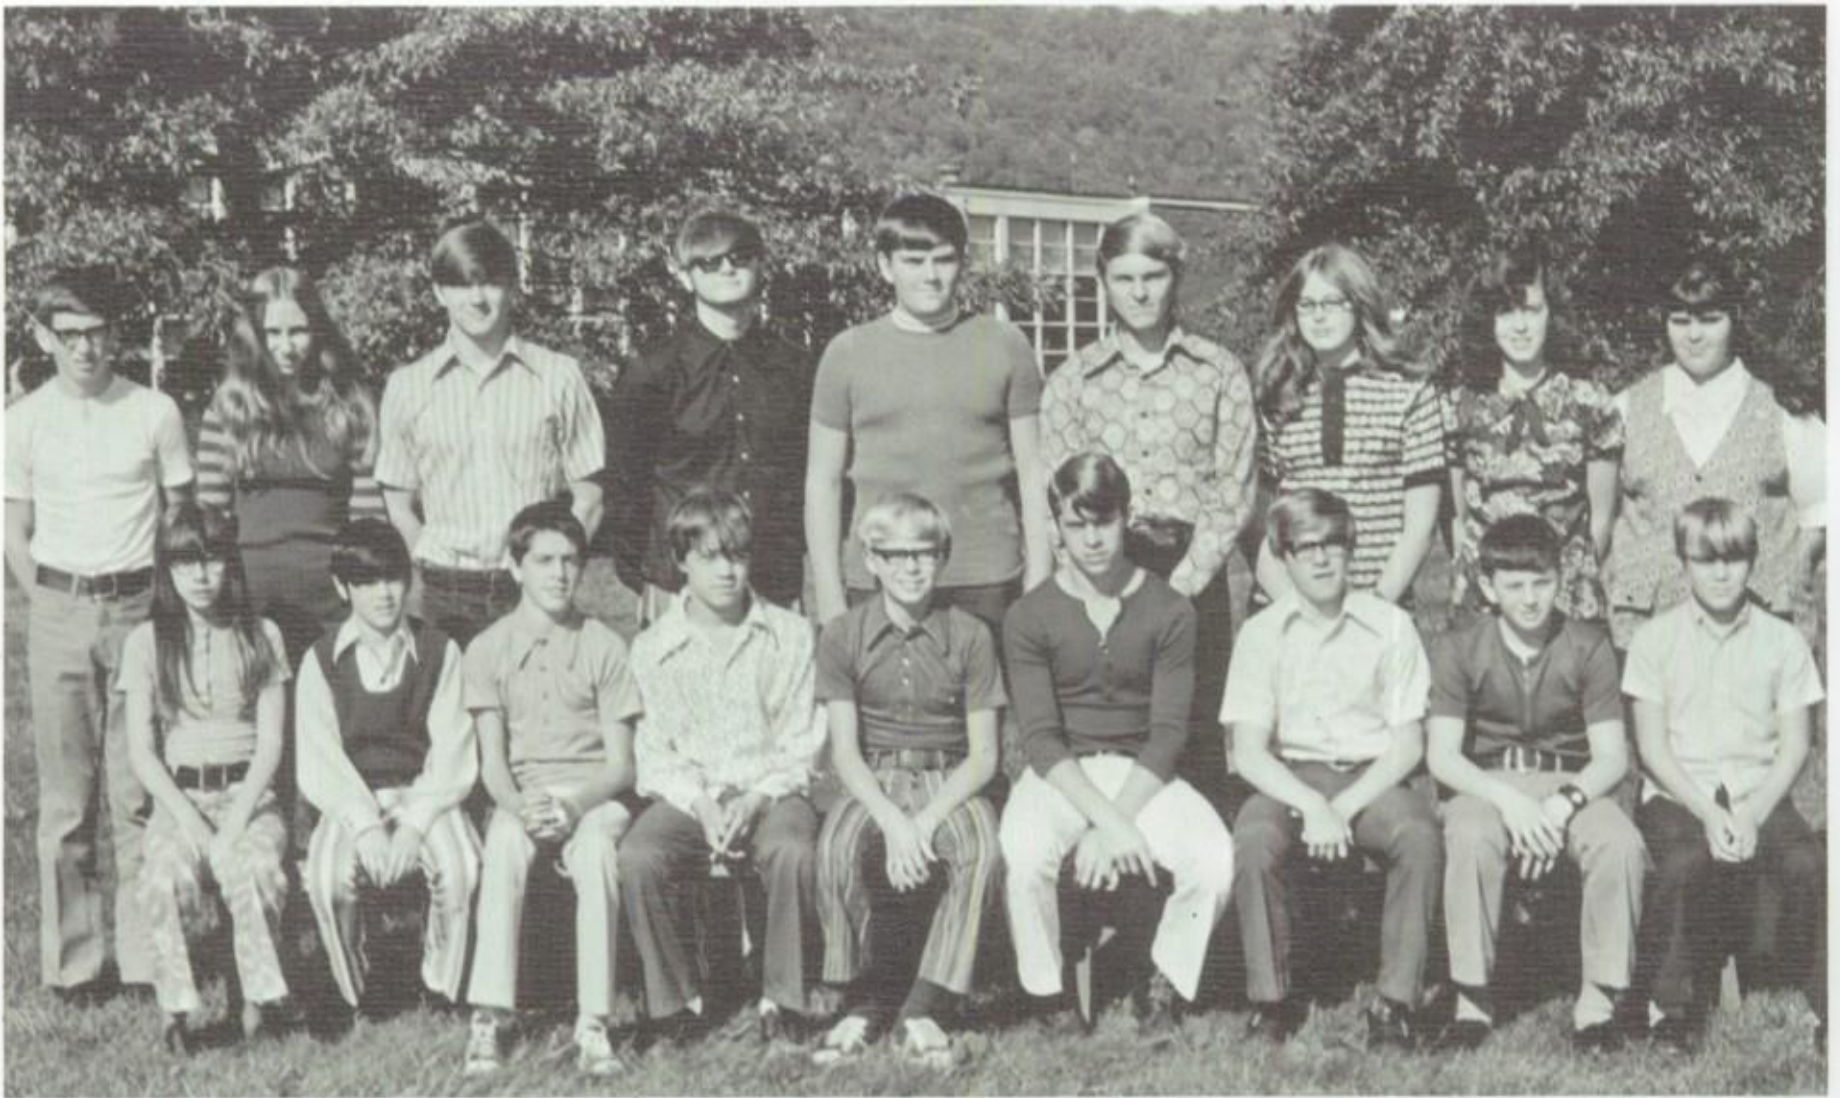

One small step for man; one giant leap for mankind.

Practice makes perfect.

The Pep Club of Hyndman High, a brand new organization, was formed for one reason—to boost team spirit! Its 65 members stuck by the Hornets through thick and thin, victory and defeat. Considering the Hornet record this season, the Pep Club had a lot to yell about. We enthusiastically supported our teams when they played on our own hardwood as well as the times they invaded enemy territory. The Pep Club—though young and struggling—will keep on yelling and cheering for those fabulous Hyndman Hornets.

On the 26th of October, the Spanish Club made a trip to Indiana University where they saw "Don Quixote" by Miguel Cervantes. The movie was completely in Spanish and seen by students from many areas.

The main goal of the Spanish Club is to raise money for a trip to Mexico, with projects such as selling pizzas and placemats. The members will spend 10 days in exciting Mexico City and beautiful Acapulco. ¡Buenos Dias!

PROM '72

KING AND QUEEN

LEFT TO RIGHT: Kathy Ritchey, Paul Sisk, Karen Clites, John Emerick.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1972 was a prom filled with young ideas, lots of excitement, and plenty of love. "We've Only Just Begun" was the magic theme, and many times when patience was low and tempers were high, the Juniors truly felt as though we had "only just begun." But FINALLY our pride and joy—Prom '72 was finished, and we were ready to enjoy the excitement and wonder of the 12th of May.

We walked hand in hand through a land of spotted mushrooms, buzzing bumblebees, and jolly talking trees. That evening we were transported to another time—a time of barefeet, bubblegum, and puppy dogs—the days of our youth.

Everytime we see the happy smiles of children playing in the sun we will be reminded of that enchanted night when we were children once again.

We've Only Just Begun

And they say groundhogs only appear in February.

I'll take this bowl, that bowl, and that one over there.

Music to dance by???

Service with a smile.

Bend and stretch! Reach for the stars.

Colonel Sanders?????

Waiters should wear hairnets.

Smile you're on Candid Camera.

No one is coming. We'll make our escape now!

ART

Vanira Shaffer—Chairman, Ernie Ritchey.

Beginnings '73 is a book—not a manuscript; it is a story—not a masterpiece. It is a hodge-podge of ideas and talent, not one, but many, all crammed into 112 pages of secret dreams, projects, and happiness.

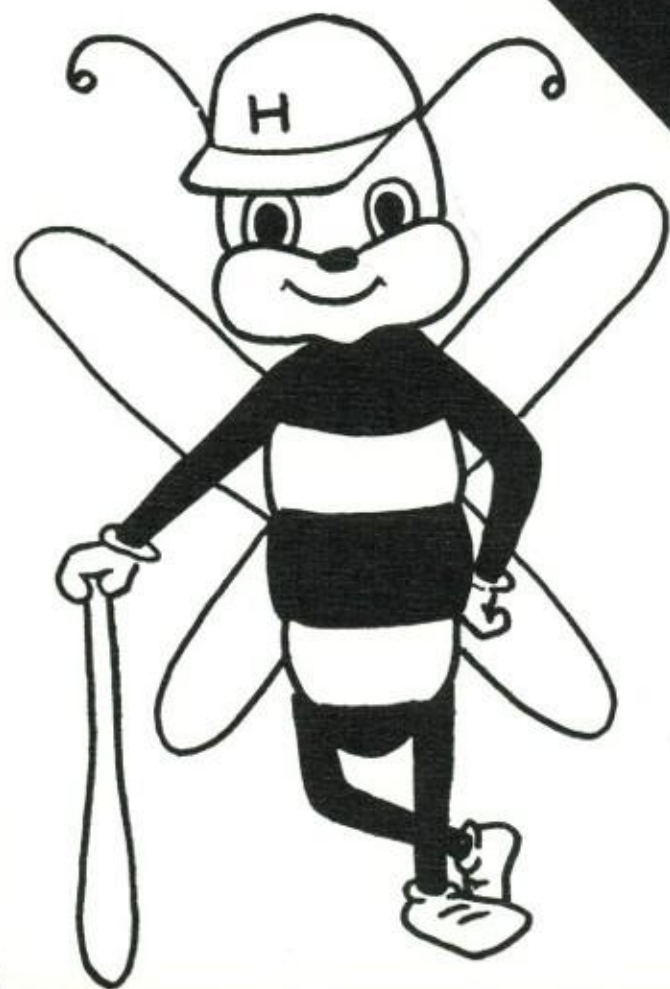

Our staff is the greatest! They can write a page of features with a pen in one hand and a potato chip in the other; they can type a whole page without any mistakes—well almost; they can measure 20 pictures with a broken cropper, and paste up art work with the wrong kind of glue.

This book is our gift to share with you—a gift of creativity, originality, and artistic ability; an adventure in love.

It is an adventure we could never have made without the help of our patient, understanding, and very special advisor, "Grandma" Kipp. Many thanks for the potato chips, Pepsi, and chicken salad sandwiches; for the pictures, ideas, and the laughs we shared. But, most of all for the kindness, faith, praise, and diligence which made Beginnings '73 the beautiful memory it is.

A HOME RUN! A TWENTY-SIX SECOND PIN!
A PERFECT SHOT FROM MIDCOURT!

The rush of the cheering crowd has swept you to the middle of the floor. The screaming, hugging, and crying of fans and players surround you. You can feel the excitement pulsing and vibrating through the air. You find it hard to believe that the Hornets have won the toughest game of the season. Yet, there's the score board spelling out the news in big, bold letters. We won!!

You become aware of a tingling sensation that is slowly warming your body through and through. Pride has a way of making you feel good.

We Hyndman fans ARE proud. It doesn't matter whether the sport is baseball, wrestling, or basketball—the feeling is the same. This pride is the force that holds our school, our people, and our town together; pride in a great bunch of kids who suddenly become superstar athletes before our eyes. Without it we would be nothing. It really doesn't matter whether we win or lose, because the pride, the love, and the joy will always be the same.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

CHEERLEADING

Some schools think their cheerleaders are the best but they aren't because ours are. Our cheerleaders can do all kinds of neat things. They can do splits and somersaults and make funny faces. They practice a lot. Almost every night they yell S-C-O-R-E until 5:30 and—they get tired. But tired bodies and sore throats don't discourage our cheerleaders. They want to be the very best. So they buy brand new socks and get their uniforms cleaned. They practice smiles, they stage a rousing pep rally and they cry a little because their uniforms didn't arrive in time for the first game. Then one day the big game finally arrives. Our cheerleaders are out there cheering their hearts out. It doesn't really matter whether our team won or lost. What does matter is the fact that our cheerleaders keep on smiling and the next night the sounds of S-C-O-R-E ring through the halls of Hyndman High.

Not on this court, you don't!

Dedicated to the ones we love.

Hey Keller, I'm movin'!

The will to win.

Duh?

Birds of a feather all flock together.

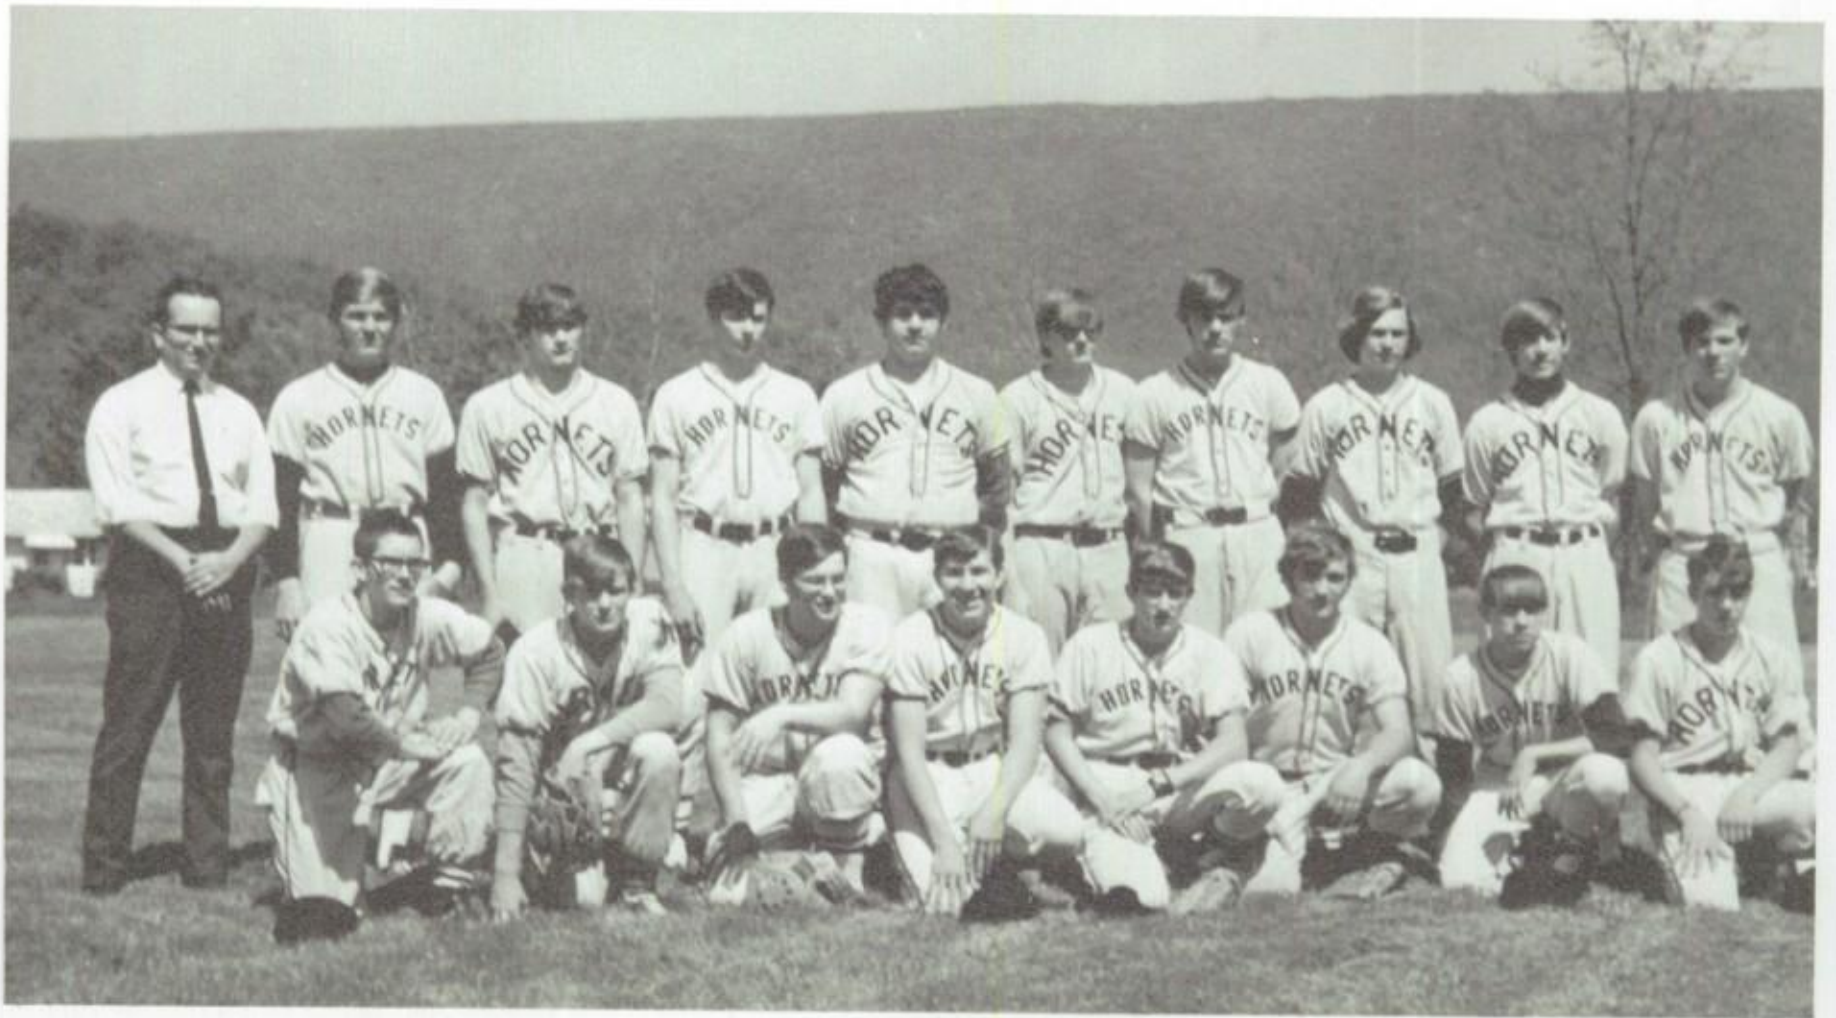

Sink it, Susie!

Where boys become men.
